

February 21, 1974

MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONFERSATION
WITH SECRETARY GENERAL LUNS
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1974 (3:30 p.m.)

He said he wanted me to know that he is going to convoke the Council. He is going to bring the Council together on Wednesday the 13th of March. The reason he picked that day is because it is the regular Council meeting date, and it means that the Ambassadors will be present. That will be the meeting with the Political Directors. He has decided against February 28 for two reasons: (1) because of Andre de Staercke's plea and (2) because of the fact that Orhan Eralp has indicated that his people could not be there on the 28th. They have been called to an important meeting in Tehran. He said he will not announce it until tomorrow because he indicated he would do it on Friday, but he did want me to be forewarned. Obviously, he was telling me that if I have any advice to the contrary to let him know fast.

