

MEMORANDUM

June 1, 2004

At the WWII Memorial event, President Clinton walked over, stuck out his hand, shook my hand, and said, "Mr. Secretary. No one with an ounce of sense thinks you had any way in the world to know about the abuse taking place. Don't worry about it. You will get through this."

DHR/azn
060104.10

