This seemed the only appropriate paper to use for this occasion. (Besides I can't think of anyone else to use it on.)

Palo Alto, 10 March 62
Greetings, Congressman Rumsfeld, from the only contributor to your campaign who has whipped you in 2 states + the District of Columbia;

Dear Art, Enclosed a small token of esteem, affection, + support. Will try to send more before Primary Day.

Have written to a number of friends who live in the critical area + ^{likely to be} ~~seen~~ ^{enrolled} Republicans. Send a little literature + I'll send it on where it might be persuasive. Of people at Stanford, Herb Walling, who knows Henry etc, has promised to urge his friends + relatives to join the crusade, + so has Hardy Will. Do you want a list of people to contact directly there?

What else can I do to help? I suspect you're in, in any case. (So much for my latest partner on the Nevada newspaper front)

Don't bother to answer this till after U-Day but do get some flunky to send on materials for ~~public distribution~~
"I very much hope that the Democratic voters of the 20th Congressional district will vote overwhelmingly for Bill Ryan and Fred Ohrenstein..."

Herbert H. Lehman
my fingers crossed - I'm very proud + keeping
AK
