

Gene McAuliffe

9/21/73

I am hoping that before I leave on Sunday, that I will be able to sign off on the cables to Kissinger concerning the Davignon lunch, the Atlantic Relations Declaration, and any tone poem we may have, and secondly, I am hopeful that before I leave on Sunday we will be able to sign off on this message to Kissinger which I have dictated an outline on.

Donald Rumsfeld

