

In late July, 1973, shortly before Strausz-Hupe left on his vacation, he warned me that I should look out for the State Department people -- that they would probably be out to get me.

